

Electric City Series 4

Number	Description	Year	Comments
4.01	57th Regimental Band	1905	The Old Drill Hall and the old Agricultural grounds which were home to the Peterborough Fair from 1868-1883 continued to be used for quarterly fairs and band concerts into the 20th century. This picture of the 57th Regimental Band was taken in 1905. The peak of the Court House is visible in the centre distance. Note the tents in the background and the parcel express wagon. Professor Rupert Glidden (fourth from left in the back row) was the bandleader. Robert Heideman is behind the drums. Photo from Anne Heideman.
