

The Trent Valley Archives for 30 years has been helping people near and far learn about the history, people, sources and events tied to this region. We have entertained countless groups with scheduled and custom tours, always well-researched and sprinkled with special twists, insights and humour. As well we publish outstanding books and an award-winning quarterly magazine of history, archives and family history. Our website, well-worth browsing, contains resources not available elsewhere on the web, and current information on our upcoming events.

Open Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

TRENT VALLEY ARCHIVES

567 Carnegie Ave, Peterborough, Ontario, K9L 1N1
705-745-4404 • trentvalleyarchives.com

History Happens Here

TRENT VALLEY ARCHIVES

Let us help you discover your ancestors and their world.

Trent Valley Archives promotes the preservation of regional archives, and supports researchers in their family and local history searches in the counties of the Trent Valley.

Our resources include:

- Extensive research library and consultations
- Access to internet and ancestry.ca resources
- Histories of local families
- Genealogical collections
- Birth, marriage and death records
- Microfilm records: manuscripts, censuses, rare books, newspapers (incl. the Peterborough Examiner 1847-2008, pre-1840 Cobourg Star)
- Cemetery lists
- Archival collections, correspondence, newspapers, photographs, maps
- Peterborough County Land Records
- Street directories
- Research library
- Advice on maintaining, preserving and conserving artifacts.

Membership:

The Archives is one of the most comprehensive sources of information of the Trent Valley region. Because we are a non-profit, completely self supporting organization we charge a modest membership fee. If you are researching people or events in this area the Trent Valley Archives is your complete resource for information.

Bookshop:

We sell all the best books on local history.

Donations:

If you wish to donate historical documents or family papers, we can arrange for income tax receipts, for donations in kind as well as financial.

