The Trent Valley Archives is a full service archives. In addition to our extensive archival collection we have an impressive library, including over 3,000 books catalogued and thousands more listed in the pertinent collections. Much of our holdings are accessible through our in-house computers which have lists of our holdings and finding aids to many of our 800 fonds. We are also partners with Ancestry.

We welcome visitors at all times and many become members when they see how much we have to offer.

We have an in-house book store that contains hundreds of titles including such new books as the two featured on this page.

Trent Valley Archives has also published several books and these, too, are available for purchase.

Ed Arnold Uncovers Peterborough 1970s Crimes

Ed Arnold investigates four high profile Peterborough crimes of the 1970s. Many of the stories have stuck with him since his many years with the Peterborough Examiner, where he was Managing Editor when he resigned.

One crimes was the shooting of Constable Dave Dawson. The other three were the killings of Murray Green, Nora Wheeler and Lisa Golding.

It is great to see the details on stories that unfolded over many years, and in which different stories circulated.

A welcome addition, and a great book for Christmas.
